Introduction

These quotations illustrate the life to which I aspire. I want my life of integrity – my values – to be integral to my actions, not just my thoughts.

So many times we miss the mark when it comes to living up to the high expectations we set for ourselves. We want to mean what we say and say what we mean. But sometimes we lack the courage of our convictions. We want to live for others, but when we tally up the day, it's painfully obvious that we've been looking out for "number one" instead.

This book may be for you. Like me, maybe you yearn to become more than you are. Perhaps you'd like to honor someone who exemplifies a life of integrity by giving him or her this book as a gift.

Reading these quotations on a regular basis will help us live that life of integrity.

Perhaps I am stronger than I think.

Thomas Merton

Success can never be measured by bank balances; money measures only prosperity. Success is a matter of character.

The world may take your reputation from you, but it cannot take your character.

Emma Dunham

Don't be afraid of opposition. Remember, a kite rises against, not with the wind.

Hamilton Mabie

Living a Life of Integrity

It's only when we truly know and understand that we have a limited time on earth-and that we have no way of knowing when our time is up-that we will begin to live each day to the fullest, as if it was the only one we had.

Elisabeth Kubler-Ross
